

ING Vysya Bank join NFS network

The ING Vysya Bank Ltd joined NPCI's National Financial Switch network on 13th January 2011. The customers of the bank would now have accessibility to 67,767 ATMs of 52 other banks which are already in the network. On an average 5 million ATM transactions are processed daily in NFS network.

A P Hota
Managing Director & CEO

About NPCI

NPCI is the umbrella organization of all retail payment systems and is set up by RBI, IBA and banks. The organization has been mandated to build payment system infrastructure for payment systems like ATM Switching, Mobile Payments, Cheque Truncation System, POS Switching, 24 * 7 remittance system and Financial Inclusion transactions.